The Man Behind the Shears

On the skill and artistic taste of the designer—"The Man Behind the Shears"—entirely depends your satisfaction in the coat you buy. From the very home of skillful designing and expert coat making are the handsome "Wooltex" garments we are showing. Have so many of them. Every season we've brought you a bigger and better stock but this time we've eclipsed all our past records. We've got the newest things—Monday an exquisite line of Raglans arrived. Nearly every day sees some attractive addition. All lengths and sizes, of course all prices from $5 to $25.

EMBROIDERIES!

5,000 yards of the daintiest Embroidery on Cambric, Nainsook and Swiss. The kind every woman knows to be worth 25c to 40c a yard at 10c a yard. Also lots at 5c, 9c, 12 1/2c, 15c. Beautiful little edges and insertings in dainty designs. Wide open work patterns for underskirts, 12-inch embroideries with lace insertings for underwear and children's dresses, 25c, 30c. A little out of season for embroideries. We know it and that is the reason for the price. Take our word—any of these embroideries are cheap enough to buy now and use as needs arise.

Unbleached Canton Flannel, 8c a Yard.

Every year we place large orders for this excellent Unbleached Canton Flannel with the manufacturers and every year we sell it to customers to whom the brand "E. T. B." is as well as favorably known as the brands of famous mullins are. And with reason—for it is a quality the equal of which regularly sells elsewhere for 10c a yard, while "E. T. B." Canton Flannel is but 8 1/2c—12 yards for a dollar.

Handkerchiefs!

Remember linen is twice as strong as cotton, three times as absorbent, four times as costly—which makes a linen handkerchief the cheapest thing on earth. Never thought you could buy much of a linen handkerchief for 5c. See what we're selling for that price—you'll buy.

Everybody is buying Walking Skirts. Easier than anything else to walk in. Conductive to health as well as comfort because they keep dry and prevent chills. Best for a dozen reasons. 3 colors—black, oxford, castor. 3 prices—$5, $5.75, $6.50. All the skirts flare at the bottom and fit snug around the hips. Great diversity in stitching.

The Southern View!

THAT WHITE HOUSE LUNCH!

Plain Statement From Washington's Alabama Home.

NO DANGER OF SOCIAL EQUALITY!

The Tuskegee News is the only paper published by the white people in the town of Tuskegee and in Macon county, Ala., where the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute is located, and of which Booker T. Washington is Principal. This is the first time that this paper has referred to the White House dinner, which has created so much discussion. We have waited patiently before discussing the matter, because we did not want to speak excitedly or hastily.

The News would say that it has no hesitation in saying that it regrets the incident and also much of the unpleasant discussion that has grown out of it. Professor Booker T. Washington has lived in this community now for twenty years, and the white people in this town and county feel that they know him and his work so well that they cannot be found in the whole South a more intelligent, cultured and discriminating set of white people than those that live in Tuskegee, where he has lived.

Professor Washington's life for twenty years has been an open book in this community and the South, and it is hardly the part of fairness to judge a man by one act when he has lived and agreed rather than by his twenty years of life living.

It is perfectly well known in this community that for fifteen years Professor Washington's business in securing the money to carry on his work has thrown him in contact with the Northern white man, both in the South and the North, in a way that does not often fall to the lot of the average colored man, but it is equally well understood in this community that all such contacts in the line of business, and the purely social aspect never entered Principal Washington's head.

We feel quite sure that the same is true of the much-talked-of dinner at the White House, and that it was not a studied and planned affair on the part of the President and Professor Washington, but that the President found that he could most conveniently see Principal Washington on business at his dinner-hour and therefore asked him to be present.

It is also known by our people at the North the dinner table is a place to talk over business to a greater extent than is true in the South. We repeat that it has been known for fifteen years in the South that Professor Washington comes in contact with people in the North in a way he does not in the South. There has been, however, a week during the last few years when the Associated Press has not told us of his speaking and dining at banquets in the North.

We all know that it was widely reported in the press of the last three years ago that he lunched with President McKinley and his party during the peace jubilee in Chicago. Nothing has been known from the South. Any one who knows Professor Washington knows that he would be the last one to seek invitations or to attract himself in a social way upon any one.

One other question arises. Is it true? So long as Principal Washington has no regard, as he always has done, and as we believe he will continue to do, to the feelings and wishes of the white people while he is in the South, how far can we reasonably expect to limit and circumscribe his actions while he is in the North? Are some people in the danger of asking too much?

As to the future, we are sure that we can trust Principal Washington to do the wise and sensible thing, as he has done up to the Washington incident. Surely if Principal Washington were engaged in preaching a propaganda of "social equality," we believe we should see evidences of such teaching in this community, where his school of 1,200 students and teachers is located. Until we do we shall be slow to pass condemnation for one incident.

It should also be remembered that the Negro race is at the present time without representation in State Legislatures and in the National Congress, and that the Negro race comprises one-eighth of our entire population, and that a President who is sworn to uphold the Constitution of the United States, President of all the people will once in a while want to get information about the Negro race, and it will be but natural for him to call upon a man like Professor Washington for information and advice regarding his race.

Professor Washington has often said in his addresses that he had rather have the good will, respect and confidence of his neighbors of both races in the little town of Tuskegee, where he has made his home for twenty years, than be without the good will and confidence of his neighbors and have the confidence of all the rest of the outside world. We are sure that we speak the truth when we say that the town of Tuskegee still has the highest confidence in him and respect for him.

THE GREAT LAXATIVE

At some time, if not habitually, you have sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, backache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, bloated or muddy skin, or some of the other symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system. Laxakola will cure you. It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the mucous membranes of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels will move regularly, your liver and kidneys will cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.

Mothers who had been seeking the proper medicine to give their little ones for constipation, diarrhea, colic and similar troubles, find Laxakola an ideal medicine for children. Children like its taste and ask for it. It keeps their bowels regular without any pain or griping, and acts as a general tonic at the same time. It will assist nature and digestion, relieve restlessness, clear the coated tongue, reduce fever, cause refreshing, restful sleep and make them well, happy and hearty.

Tasteful, the great Laxative, is not only one of the cleanest of family remedies, but the most reliable, because it contains two medicines, viz., laxative and tonic, and at the same time, it is a cure for the biliousness, indigestion, and other ailments. For full description and for sample to THE LAXAKOLA CO., 125 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 312 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

Genuine stamped C. C. C. Never sold in bulk. Beware of the dealer who tries to sell "something just as good."

AN ESTIMATE OF CANTRILL.

Cantrill still lives in Kentucky.

The result of the second trial of Secretary of State Cullen Powers and the efforts of the Democrats, though thwarted by Governor Darby and Indiana, to drag Governor Taylor and former Secretary of State Charles F. Smith to Kentucky to remain in conviction and possible death, shows the unrelenting spirit of the Gobel faction. That faction has secured the Legislature, which has passed a resolution to impeach Governor Taylor, and the Legislature has passed a resolution to impeach Governor Taylor, and the Legislature has passed a resolution to impeach Governor Taylor.

Representative Wheeler and Smith and Judge Cantrill, who has presided at the trial of those indicted for complicity in the killing of Senator Gobel. Not one of these men is fit to represent such a state as Kentucky in the United States Senate, but at least of all is Judge Cantrill, leaving of such an honor. He is beyond all doubt the Judge of the United States. His conduct during these trials has been disgraceful not only to Kentucky, but also to the country. It would be a disgrace to the United States Senate to send there a man whose unclean conscience and just for blood make him forget the commonest dictates of humanity and justice. It is to be hoped that Kentucky, elected as it is in Gobelism, will not permit this crowning shame.

Miss Mary Forman, the returned Miss Mary of India, will make an address to children tomorrow afternoon at Millersburg and on Friday will speak to the ladies.

AN UNEQUALLED RECORD.

There is a rapidly increasing volume of Mayville Evidence Rolling Up For the Great Medicine, Dr. A. W. Chase's Sore Pills.

It would seem that hardly anyone can take Dr. A. W. Chase's Sore Pills without receiving marked benefit. The wonderful action of this medicine in putting people on their feet who are in a weak rundown condition is the talk of every place they are known. It is only a short time since they first came to Mayville yet today they are more in evidence for merit with Mayville people than all other medicines combined.

Mrs. J. W. Farley of 214 Fourth street, Mayville, Ky., says:

"I have been for a long time troubled with nervousness and I was generally run down. I read of Dr. A. W. Chase's Sore Pills and got a box at Chenoweth's drugstore and now I can say my nerves are steady and my health generally improved. Can recommend this medicine very highly."

COLLECTORS APPOINTED.

The Attorney General has appointed the following collectors for the Kentucky revenue:

Washington, Nov. 13.—The announcement of the settlement of the contest for the Kentucky internal revenue collectorship was made at the conclusion of a conference at the white house participated in by the president, Secretary Blair, the revenue collector and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes. The formal appointments were announced late in the afternoon.

The contest for the vacancy created by the resignation last Saturday of Collector C. E. Sapp, of the Fifth (Louisville) district, was brief, but spirited. The president's inclination from the first was to appoint Mr. Craft, but some strong opposition developed against him, and the matter was considered very carefully.

Senator Debow, who is a friend of former Collector Sapp, had vigorously urged the appointment of Mr. Craft, but at the conference withdrew his opposition and gave Craft his endorsement. The announcement of Mr. Sapp's appointment followed.

Representative Boring from the first had supported Mr. Craft, who had the substantial endorsement of the revenue collector of Kentucky, E. V. Brady, who was not present at the day's conference, also supported Mr. Craft.

At the same conference George W. Leiberth was elected president of the collectorship of the Sixth (Covington) district to succeed Mr. N. Combs. The latter is the present collector and was a candidate for reappointment.

SAFE IN JAIL.

A Murderer Surrenders Himself to the Sheriff to Escape An Expected Hanging Mob.

Mayking, Ky., Nov. 13.—(The Herald) Whitaker, aged 28, shot and killed Preston Banks, aged 22, a near neighbor, at the latter's home. Whitaker began teasing Banks. Banks retaliated in kind and Whitaker shot him dead. Whitaker fled to the hills and a posse went in pursuit, swearing they would kill Whitaker on sight.

They located him on the Branch creek, near here. A battle followed in which Whitaker was dangerously wounded and one of the posse was seriously and fatally wounded. Whitaker then made his escape from the men and went to Whitesburg, the county seat, where he evaded John Adams, jailer, and was placed in the most substantial cell in the county jail. "I am safe now, they can't get me," Whitaker cried as he was placed in the lock-up.

RIVER NEWS.

The J. M. Grubbs has given up the Cincinnati-Huntington trade.

There is a considerable rise in the rivers—the bottom coming to where the top ought to be.

The steamers are throwing so much gravel on their roofs that passengers cannot sleep.

The Coalmine is loading its towboats at Pittsburgh with dry stores to prepare them for the first rise.

The Cando has been chartered for another trade outside the Ohio-Cincinnati run, and as soon as the Helen Gould arrives to take her place she will leave.

During the season 1910 there was no coalboat rise in the Ohio river from March until December 13. There were large rises at intermediate times, but little coal was shipped.

Repairs are being made to the towage locks on Green river. It is expected they will be completed this week. Valley View is at present the head of navigation on the Kentucky river.

The safe of the towboat Pacific, that sunk at Davis Island from December 13, 1909, has never been recovered. The big, strong box does not contain much money, but there are several valuable diamonds in it.

Hell for Sidney Cole, who killed Captain W. T. Terry on the Keystone State while she was leading near his home during the flood last April, was fixed at $10,000. He has not secured it yet, and is in jail at Portsmouth.

Kodol Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

Some people wonder why pepsin preparations don't help their dyspepsia. They probably suffer because they can't digest foods that pepsin does not affect. The reason is, pepsin digests only nitrogenous foods, while different substances are required to digest the variety of other foods necessary for proper nourishment. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure contains all the digestants, and is capable of completely digesting every kind of food. That is why it digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the variety you want; and that is why it cures indigestion, even after everything else has failed. As it is the only preparation of the kind known, the demand for it has become enormous. Its use affords instant relief from all forms of stomach trouble.

Perhaps no better illustration of Mr. Keenen's ability as an actor can be given than by quoting a criticism from one of the most prominent papers in the country. Of his performance of that intensely dramatic character, the Executioner in "The Musketeers," the critic says: "Not a movement that was not illustrative of the terrible intent, not a gesture that was not in conformity with that purpose as to deserve the name of art. Indeed the entire characterization was a masterpiece of tragic portraiture, so real, so terrible in its truth, so convincing, not to be dimmed by any subsequent event." This season Mr. Keenen is starting in the "Hon. John Grigsby" by Charles Klein, and the play gives him a splendid opportunity to display his wonderful versatility. The play will be at Washington Opera-house on November 10th.
